Is Your Will Up To Date?

Have you made your will? At the point when a will is rendered we can all afford to direct a portion of our estates toward the proclamation of the Gospel. You can be assured that WCIF will be remembered and perpetuated by making your wishes known while you are living (through the directions in a will). It’s a way for your gift to keep on giving. Even well meaning heirs may forget your wishes to proclaim the truth unless you spell out your desire. Others may not share your vision. Why not take time right now to organize your estate? See an attorney as soon as possible about ensuring that your gift for the ministry of WCIF is included in your will. If you need assistance, please contact:

Transmission line repair on April 3, 2010

On Friday April 2, 2010 WCIF experienced a transmission failure. After hours of troubleshooting our engineer Jim found the problem to be linked to either the antenna or the coax cable that linked the transmitter to the antenna. Early the next morning Jim found some of his engineer climbing friends to help and they determined that severe burning and damage from lightning at some point had occurred at the connection of the coax to the antenna some 460 feet up. The repairs were done in time for us to celebrate Easter with you. Praise the Lord!

Thanks Jim and Crew!

Steady - Saint

Lee Martinez

My first trip through the salt flats of Utah was by train. It was a trip that brought me as up close and personal as I ever wanted to be to those unfriendly and hopeless surroundings.

Picture a moon landing and you have a sense of what it was like. Out in the middle of the flats and there is nothing in every direction. Train - keep moving and hopefully in the right direction to the quickest way out of here.

Looking back how grateful I am for the steel track that kept our cars going straight to the other side. You know, someone had to lay those tracks. You could tell there was a plan because there was one set of tracks. Branching off the main would have been fruitless, time consuming and useless. Wandering off in the flats could be fatal.

There are so many things in our day to draw us aside and slow our progress. But our course has been set as surely as those tracks and the surroundings will just as surely drain us as the desert of salt could. It’s a good time to reflect on all that has been done to keep you headed in the right direction in a protected environment. Thank God for Jesus Christ and what He did on the cross for us!

Stay on course – survive and enjoy!
Lee Martinez

As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, O God. Psalm 42:1

If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. James 1:5-8

Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things; and give me life in your ways. Confirm to your servant your promise, that you may be feared. Psalm 119:37-38

I will keep your law continually, forever and ever, and I shall walk in a wide place, for I have sought your precepts. I will also speak of your testimonies before kings and shall not be put to shame. Psalm 119:44-46

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Remember When?

ROSS WEBER

(WCIF Announcer 1990-1993)

Spotlight on Jim Daly

Focus on the Family
(weekdays, 1:30 and 9:00 p.m.)

If you've heard me tell my story on the radio or read my book Finding Home, you know I'm not a poster child for family stability. For starters, my life was almost snuffed out while I was still in the womb. My mom was worried about the potential complications associated with a pregnancy in her 40s, and seriously considered an abortion. In the end, my father talked her out of it.

Nevertheless, things were rocky at home, and my parents divorced when I was only 5 years old. Mom remarried when I was 9—but a year later, she died of cancer. My siblings and I arrived home after her funeral to find our step-father's bags packed and a cab waiting for him by the curb. It was obvious he wanted nothing more to do with us. We lived with another family until a year later, when my birth father reappeared on the scene. But soon he was gone, too—after getting drunk and freezing to death in an abandoned warehouse. I was an orphan at the age of 12.

Daly is a graduate of California State University, San Bernardino, and Regis University in Denver. In 2009, he received an honorary Doctor of Letters degree from Colorado Christian University, in Denver.

Daly has received the 2008 World Children's Center Humanitarian Award and the 2009 Children's Hunger Fund Children's Champion Award. He has appeared on such television programs as Glenn Beck, Hannity and Your World with Neil Cavuto, and is a regular panelist for The Washington Post/Newsweek blog "On Faith" alongside leading academics and theologians.

"I am living proof," he wrote in his 2007 autobiography, Finding Home, "that no matter how torn up the road has already been, or how pothole-infested it may look ahead, nothing – nothing – is impossible for God."

Jim is now the principle speaker on Focus on the Family.

fathers, too. As dads, we can repeat the mistakes made by our parents—or we can take the best of what we've learned from them, reject the baggage, and choose to set a new course for ourselves and our families.

That's why Focus on the Family exists. We're here to come alongside families with relevance and grace at each stage of their journey. We want to see marriages excel, rather than merely survive. And we want to support moms and dads as they seek to raise children who love God. Jim Daly Daly assumed the presidency of Focus on the Family in 2005 after 16 years with the ministry. Jim's career at Focus included assistant to the president (1989), field director for Asia, Africa and Australia (1992), vice president of the International Division (1997), and group vice president (2003), charged with directing the strategic path of the organization. In 2004, he was appointed chief operating officer, the role he held until he was hand-picked by Focus on the Family founder Dr. James Dobson to be the ministry's president.

Daly has received the 2008 World Children's Center Humanitarian Award and the 2009 Children's Hunger Fund Children's Champion Award. He has appeared on such television programs as Glenn Beck, Hannity and Your World with Neil Cavuto, and is a regular panelist for The Washington Post/Newsweek blog "On Faith" alongside leading academics and theologians.

Special Programs

HEROIC MOTHERHOOD

Saturday, May 8 – 5:00 p.m.
Sunday, May 9 – 2:00 p.m.

Heroic is often a descriptive word about soldiers or public servants who've risked their lives to save another. It is an equally apt description of most mothers. This special will follow the stories of three mothers in very different stages of life. Gail MacDonald, Kim Hill and Janet Davis with music by Sara Groves.

DADS IN HARD TIMES

Saturday, June 19 – 5:00 p.m.
Sunday, June 20 – 2:00 p.m.

This Father's Day will be difficult for many men. From a desert experience to an elevator shaft in Haiti, you'll hear the struggle of two fathers to love their children through some life-threatening situations. Plus, a story about a man who found himself in a prison his own father built. These stories will draw you closer to your heavenly Father and give you lasting hope.

Thanks For Your Letters

Titusville – I am sorry for being late with my contribution. I was in the hospital and just returned home. Congratulations on the 30th year Anniversary. God bless you all and please keep up your good work. Love in Christ.

Melbourne – So good to hear you on the Web here in Oklahoma City, OK. Will be there next week . . . hope to see you then, Thanks Palm Bay – I want to thank you for praying for me. When I called and asked for prayer I was just getting over a virus and still was not feeling any stronger. But after calling and asking for prayer – by that evening I could feel my body getting stronger and although I didn't go to work that Sunday I was able to return on Monday. Thank you and Our Lord Jesus! My check for my donation is late – I'm sorry but being out sick put me a bit behind. I added a little extra for the air circulation system and will try to add to a little again the next few months.

Viera – I really enjoy WCIF – everyday. It is my joy to contribute to the station.

- July 23 – Sue Carlisle in honor of her grandson Grayson Watters on his sixth birthday
- July 30 – Larry and Judy Robson in honor of their niece Ava on her first birthday

Melbourne – When WCIF went down a week or two ago, I can't remember and I called and my dear sister said you all were waiting for a part, I think for the transmitter. Well I hope that was a wake up call to the listeners of what it would be like to turn on the radio and no WCIF. It was horrible. . . Please people bump up your support or that might happen someday to turn on the radio and no WCIF. I love you guys and thank you for being there.

Titusville – Dear WCIF and partners, May you be Blessed for all your serving hearts to bring many to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We love you, and stand with you.

Indialantic – Finally I had another substitute job. I thank you for the wonderful people at WCIF and thankful for another job.

Palm Bay – Thank you so much for continuing to broadcast on WCIF. My very favorite program is Unshackled, but I enjoy the songs, the preachers, the encouragement you send out. I even look forward to the weather report. I enclose . . . I can't be a regular subscriber but will do the best I can. Thanks again & may the Lord bless you real good. I pray & believe you will get the amount needed for this year.

Melbourne – I am still enjoying the beautiful song and service every day on the radio. I have not been well for the past 3 months. That's why you have not been hearing from me, anyway I have improved. I can walk much better now. Your prayers will be appreciated. God Bless.

Palm Bay – Thank you for the "Great Gift" you sent me. I know I will use it & receive much from it. The Joni Tada Devotion will always be cherished as it is from you all. Thank you for all you do to send out God's Word over the airwaves. I am grateful for how long ago Lee, you encouraged me to do my daily devotions...what you encouraged me to do has grown fruit in my life. I have enclosed my one time gift I pledged as you all did Sharathon. Blessings and love to you all. My Mother would be so pleased to see the Radio Station doing so well She was one of the first gifters to see it get started. I still have her pin that was given to her when she pledged that money.
